GO COLLECT KNOWLEDGE: School of Education Day at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. Students in grades 8-12 will have an opportunity to experience a variety of teacher education majors offered at UWL. During this interactive day, students will engage in conversations with faculty, current students, academic and admissions staff. Furthermore, participants will receive a free lunch. Come COLLECT KNOWLEDGE!

Latinx Visit Day & Parent College

Saturday, April 13
10:00-2:15
At UWL

This event is designed to give students and their families a chance to learn about educational opportunities and resources, as well as empower parents by giving them knowledge of the entire U.S. educational system and what they need to know to prepare students for future college and university careers. All presentations during Latinx Visit Day & Parent College will be conducted in Spanish and we will have translators available throughout the event.

Transportation and Lunch will be provided for all attendees.
