wild child nature explorers

Catch the light at the library with hands-on activities, stories, and STEM challenges. The environmental education group Happy Dancing Turtle returns with a bug-o-riffic program all about insects. Kids will discover the important roles that insects play in our eco system, learn about some of the strangest ones we have in the Driftless Region (like fireflies!), and make their own insects—recycled craft style—with egg cartons, pipe cleaners, and other fun crafting materials. Designed for ages 6-10 (children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult). Registration is required and begins Mon., March 18.
